- 15. If the match does not take place and a technical defeat (disqualification) is awarded, all bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).

- ○ “Total (Including Overtime)” bets include regular time and overtime, but exclude shootouts;
- ○ “Match Winner” markets include regular time, overtime, and shootouts.
- ○ The “To Qualify” market in the playoffs determines the winner of a series up to 4 wins (advancing to the next stage), not the winner of an individual match in the series.
- Example 1. Buffalo Sabres vs Toronto Maple Leafs. Final score: 2:3 (1:0, 1:1, 0:1, 0:0, 0:1). The “Match Winner” bet will be accepted and settled including regular time, overtime, and shootouts.
- Example 2. Buffalo Sabres vs Toronto Maple Leafs. Final score: 2:3 (1:0, 1:1, 0:1, 0:0, 0:1). Bets on “Total (incl. OT)” are settled based on 2:2 (1:0, 1:1, 0:1, 0:0), excluding shootouts.
- Example 3. Buffalo Sabres vs Toronto Maple Leafs. Final score: 2:3 (1:0, 1:1, 0:1, 0:0, 0:1). Bets on “Match Result (Regular Time)” are settled based on 2:2 (1:0, 1:1, 0:1). In this case, bets on Team 1 and Team 2 lose, and Draw wins.
- 2. The order of teams (home vs away) in NHL, AHL, KHL, OHL, VHL, and ECHL matches does not affect bet validity.
- 3. “Total”. If the line includes a shootout, the winning team is awarded 1 goal for settlement purposes, regardless of attempts. Shootout goals for the losing team are not counted.
- 4. “Goal from minute 1 to 7”.
- A goal scored exactly at 7:00 is counted as occurring in the 8th minute.
- 5. Outright markets (“To Finish Higher”, “To Qualify”, “League Winner”, “Group Winner”, “Points”) are settled based on the official final standings of the competition.
- 7. “Team 2 to Win in Overtime — No” bets are settled as wins if:
- ○ Overtime does not occur; or

- Team 2 does not win in overtime.
- The same applies to shootout markets.
- 8. “Overtime Win” bets are settled only if the winner is determined in overtime (not in a shootout).
- 9. Bets including shootouts count the shootout as 1 additional goal for the winning team.
- 10. “Player to Score (Regular Time)” and “Player to Score a Point” bets are settled based on regular time only.
- 11. “Highest Scoring Period”.
- If two or more periods have the same number of goals, bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 24. BOWLS
- 1. Bets are accepted on both matches and individual sets. All sets must be played in a match. If a winner is determined before the match is completed, bets on unfinished sets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund), unless the remaining play could affect the outcome.
- 2. For bets to stand, the match must be officially completed or a winner declared by the organizer, provided at least one end has been fully played.
- 3. If the lineup of participants changes before the match begins, all bets on the match are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 1. If a race is not completed and no official result is published by the organizer, all bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund), except for bets on outcomes that have already been determined.
- 2. All bets are settled based on the official classification of the Fédération Internationale de l’Automobile (FIA) after the publication of the final results.
- 3. “Head-to-Head”.
- Bets require predicting which of the two specified drivers will finish higher in the official race classification.
- For the bet to be considered a winning one, both drivers must start. If one driver does not start, bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- The driver who finished higher in the official classification is considered higher;
- If both drivers retire after an equal number of laps, bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund);
- 4. If a technical defeat is awarded in a round (map) or for the entire match, all match markets, as well as markets on the affected map, are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 5. If a map or match is interrupted and not completed, all bets that have not been determined at the time of interruption are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 6. If a round or map is replayed due to technical issues not related to the actions of a team or player, any outcomes not determined at the time of the replay are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 7. If the match format is changed or does not comply with the regulations, the Company reserves the right to settle all bets on the match at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 8. If a match starts with a handicap on maps or rounds (as determined by referees or tournament regulations), all bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund), unless such an advantage was specified in advance in the event description.

- 9. If one or more players on a team are unable to continue after the match has started, and the team chooses to continue with fewer players (in accordance with tournament regulations), all bets are settled based on the official match result.
- 10. If a match is postponed or rescheduled more than 72 hours from the originally scheduled start time, all bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 11. If a match is interrupted and not completed within 48 hours of the scheduled start time, all unsettled bets on markets whose outcomes were not determined before the interruption are void.
- 12. Rehosting (continuing a map from a saved point) is not considered grounds for a bet refund.
- 27. CS2
- 1. A map is considered to have started once the first instance of damage is dealt in the pistol (first) round.
- 2. A round is considered won if:
- ◦ All opponents are eliminated;
- ◦ The bomb explodes or is defused;
- ◦ The round timer expires and the win conditions are met.
- 3. A map is won by the first team to reach 13 rounds (or another number, depending on the tournament regulations).
- If the score reaches 12:12, overtime is played:
- ◦ 6 additional rounds;
- ◦ The winner is the team that wins at least 4 out of 6 rounds.
- If the score is tied again (15:15), further overtime periods of 6 rounds are played until a winner is determined. Overtime continues until one team wins a majority (4 out of 6 rounds).
- 4. If the tournament regulations allow for a draw as the final result, bets are settled according to the official result.
- 5. Unless stated otherwise, all bets are settled including overtime.
- 6. Total kills are calculated based on the number of frags officially recorded in the match statistics. Team kills, suicides, and environmental deaths are not counted unless recorded as frags.
- 7. Substituting one or two players after the match has started does not result in a bet refund. Substituting up to two players does not result in bets being voided. A team or organization name change involving no more than two player changes also does not result in bets being voided.
- 8. If a player is unable to play on a map, and the map has not started (no frags recorded), or the player has participated in less than half of the map, bets on that player are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 9. If a player is unable to continue after the map has started (at least one frag has been recorded) and has played more than half the map, bets are settled based on the official match statistics. If official statistics are unavailable, HLTV.org or another recognized statistics source will be used.

- 10. If no rounds are played on a map, all bets on that map are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 11. “Map — Knife Kill”.

- 12. Bet “Map — HE Grenade Kill”.
- ○ Only opponent kills recorded in the official statistics as grenade kills are counted;
- Team kills are not counted.
- 13. “Map — Molotov or Incendiary Grenade Kill”.
- 15. Technical pauses, player reconnections and delays do not affect the settlement of bets.
- 16. If the map was restarted before the market outcome was determined, bets are settled based on the result of the replayed map.
- 17. If the map was interrupted and no official winner is declared, all bets on it are voided, except for markets whose outcomes have already been determined.
- 18. If a technical victory is awarded to one team after the map has started, only markets whose outcomes have already been determined will be settled. All other bets are void.
- 19. All statistical markets are settled based on the official match statistics. If official statistics are unavailable, data from recognized statistical sources may be used.
- 20. Errors in the broadcast, observer mode, score display, team line-ups or other information do not affect the settlement of bets.
- 28. DOTA 2
- 2. All kills are counted until the end of the map, and the final calculation is based on the data recorded at the moment the main objective is destroyed.
- 3. Substituting one of the teams' players after the match has started does not result in a bet refund. Substituting up to two players does not result in bets being voided. A team or organization name change involving no more than two player changes also does not result in bets being voided.
- 4. “Map — First Aegis” is settled based on the team that first picks up the Aegis, not the team that kills Roshan.
- 7. “Map — First Blood”.
- ○ Only hero kills against opponents count;
- ○ Kills by creeps or towers, as well as denies by a player on the same team, do not count.
- 8. “Map – Will the Map End During Daytime”.

- 14. “Map — Will There Be a Godlike Streak”.
- ○ “Yes” wins if any player achieves a 10-kill streak without dying.
- 15. “Map — Will There Be a Rampage”.
- ○ The condition is met if a player gets 5 kills within a short period, as declared by the game system.
- 16. “Map — Will There Be an Ultra Kill”.

- ○ For fractional totals, half a minute must be reached (e.g., Over 25.5 requires at least 25:30).
- 19. If the map was restarted with the same selected heroes, all bets remain valid. If the map was restarted with newly selected heroes, all bets are void.
- 23. Errors in the broadcast, spectator mode, score display, or other information do not affect bet settlement.
- 29. LEAGUE OF LEGENDS
- 2. Substituting one of the teams' players after the match has started does not result in a bet refund.
- 3. Substituting up to two players does not result in bets being voided. A team or organization name change involving no more than two player changes also does not result in bets being voided.
- 4. If, within 48 hours after the end of the match, the organizer officially overturns the result and disqualifies one of the teams, all bets on the event are void.
- 5. The “Map — First Team to Destroy Tower” bet is settled on the first officially destroyed tower, regardless of whether the final hit was dealt by a champion or a minion.
- 6. “Map — First to Destroy Inhibitor”.
- ○ Any inhibitor destruction counts (by champions, minions, or via a denial by a player on the same team).
- ○ Only kills against opposing champions count;

- Kills by minions or towers, as well as denies, do not count.
- 8. “Map — Total Inhibitors”.
- Only the first destruction of each inhibitor counts;
- Repeated destruction of a respawned inhibitor does not count.
- 9. “Map — Both Teams to Kill the Dragon”.
- “Yes” wins if each team kills at least one Dragon during the same map.
- 10. “Map — First to Kill the Baron”.
- The bet wins if the correct team is selected;
- If Baron is not killed, all bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 11. Map duration:
- For whole-number totals, the specified time must be reached (e.g., Over 36.0 requires at least 36:00);
- For fractional totals, half a minute must be reached (e.g., Over 36.5 requires at least 36:30).

- 20. Player statistics markets are settled based on the official match statistics.
- 22. Errors in the broadcast, spectator mode, score display, or other information do not affect bet settlement.
- 30. VALORANT

- 4. Unless stated otherwise, all bets are settled including overtime.
- 5. Substituting one of the teams' players after the match has started does not result in a bet refund.
- 6. Substituting up to two players does not result in bets being voided. A team or organization name change involving no more than two player changes also does not result in bets being voided.

- 7. At a 12:12 score, overtime is played in accordance with the tournament regulations. If not stated otherwise, all overtime rounds are included when settling bets.
- 9. If a map was restarted before the outcome of any market was determined, all bets on that map are void, unless stated otherwise.

Rules

- 31. Circumstances of the force majeure
- Websites and games are available to you without any express or implied guarantees.
- Gambling in a bookmaker's office is just an amusement, a good way to spend some leisure time, to enjoy the game of the favorite team, and to find some like-minded persons amongst the other participants of betting. While enjoying your leisure time and watching the matches and participating in gambling you, nevertheless, must keep in mind that caution must be exercised. Every betting participant must always remember:
- · always pay attention to the time and amount of money you spent on the game.
- · you should always pay attention to the amount of money you spend on the game;
- · you must always know the game rules when you play.
- It is difficult to differentiate between a healthy game passion and a sick addiction. But there are some signs which may witness that the betting participants start to have problems.
- Define for yourself in advance the time you will spend for the game in the betting office;
- Try to find a new hobby and combine it with the game;
- Self-exclusion from the game
- If starting pitchers are listed, both must start the game and pitch at least one inning for bets to remain valid. Otherwise, all bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- If starting pitchers are not listed, bets stand regardless of who starts the game.

- Outcomes that were already definitively determined at the time of stoppage (e.g., the result of the first game) are settled based on the actual result;
- 2. The match format is set by the tournament organizer (best of 3 or best of 5 games). The winner is the first player to win three games.
- 6. Handicaps and totals are calculated based on the number of games, except for the “Set Handicap” and “Set Total” markets.
- 7. If a championship tiebreak (shortened game to 10 points) is played instead of a deciding set, the set is counted as 1:0 for game calculation purposes.
- 9. “Game Winner”.
- If the specified game does not take place (for example, if the match ends before the game occurs), bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- Games are numbered sequentially. For example, if the 2nd set ends 6–1, bets on the 8th game of that set are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund), since there was no 8th game.
- Only actual game actions count:
- 21. A game update after the market has opened is not grounds for voiding bets.
- 1. The winner of a map is the team that destroys the enemy throne first, regardless of the current frag score, unless the opposing team has officially surrendered (by typing “GG” in the in-game chat) before that point.
- 5. The “Map — First Team to Destroy Tower” bet is settled by the first tower officially destroyed, according to the in-game event log. The method of destruction is irrelevant.
- 6. The “Map — First Team to Destroy Barracks” bet is settled by the first barracks officially destroyed, according to the in-game event log. The method of destruction is irrelevant.
- Settlement is based on the in-game cycle (day: 0:00–4:59; night: from 5:00);
- Settled based on correctly predicting the type of the first Power-Up Rune that spawns at 6:00 in-game time.
- 18. Technical pauses do not affect the settlement of bets. If the map resumes from the same game state, all bets remain valid.
- 20. If a map was paused and resumed from the same game state within 48 hours, all bets remain valid. Otherwise, all unsettled bets are void.
- 21. All bets are settled based on the official match results published by the tournament organizer and the official in-game statistics.
- 22. Changes to the game version or the release of a new update after the betting market opens are not grounds for voiding bets.
- 1. The winner of a map is the team that destroys the enemy Nexus. All in-game events are counted up to the moment it is destroyed.
- 12. Technical pauses do not affect the settlement of bets. If the map resumes from the same game state, all bets remain valid.

- 21. Changes to the game version or the release of a new update after the betting market opens are not grounds for voiding bets.
- 8. Technical pauses, player reconnections and delays do not affect the settlement of bets. If the map resumes from the same game state, all bets remain valid.
- 15. Changes to the game version or the release of a new update after the betting market has opened do not constitute grounds for voiding bets.
- 3. If a match cannot start and one team is given a technical defeat before the game begins, bets are settled at odds of 1 (bet refund).
- 8. The winner who won the car must sign and provide the documents requested by the organizer within 14 days after the end of the draw, and also receive the prize in person. Expenses related to awarding the prize to the winner, except for customs duties and fees, are paid by the organizer. Customs duties and fees are paid by the winner. If the winner does not provide documents or refuses to receive the car in person, the winner receives the monetary equivalent.
- Rakeback is a return of a percentage of the amount of your bets in the casino. It is credited regardless of whether you won or lost.
